

Greetings from Sue

I met Angela at the market when I was looking for something. It wasn't anything material- it was just 'something'. After talking to Angela and seeing the photos I knew that I had found it.

I have four children, only one still at home and three gorgeous grandchildren- Ruwan, Maleisha and Ben. We are a multicultural family.

My husband is from Scotland, my eldest daughter's husband is from Sri Lanka and my second daughter is in Germany with her German-born husband.

I am a homebody/student/artandcraftster/and am just starting my own business.

I look forward to meeting up with you.
